Over 50's Belly Dance with Justine

Justine was a belly dance performer and teacher 25 years ago, dancing in a troupe, solo and collaborating with other artists in Cabaret and Balady styles. Many years later, with the influence of her mind/body massage therapy, Justine is teaching a Balady, earthy, grounded style of belly dance along with somatic (mind/body) movements, specially designed for more mature bodies. It's safe, slow, and gentle to start, gradually building strength, confidence, improved posture and co-ordination. Suits absolute beginners over 50. Dance is uplifting, healing and fun for everyone.

1000 Hearts Project

1000 Hearts is a global kindness project that spreads love, hope, and comfort through handmade pocket-sized fabric hearts. Founded in 2016, the initiative began with a simple idea: sewing and giving away thousands of hearts to people who need a little courage or kindness in their lives.

Location: PICAL Warley

Sat 28th Feb 2026

11.00am - 2.00pm

with Aleta Groves and Kerryn Ladell

Contact:
roomhire@pical.org.au

Come along and sew your own little heart of love and hope! All materials will be provided—felt, thread, stuffing, and needles—so you just bring your creativity and kindness.

Making these pocket-sized hearts is a simple, soothing sewing activity that spreads warmth and connection to those who need it most. Whether you're a sewing pro or a first-timer, you'll find joy in crafting something meaningful to give away. It's a wonderful way to unwind, meet kindred spirits, and make a real difference—one heart at a time!
